

Fostering communications among the various parish organizations and St. Al's parishioners....

Round St. Al's Newsletter

It is a quarterly publication sent to each parish family the months of January, April, July, and October. It is a great opportunity for parish organizations to communicate significant news, upcoming events, and photographs from commission sponsored events.

| Newsletter Publishing Schedule | |
|--------------------------------|-------------------|
| Newsletter Issue | Article Deadline |
| Winter 2008: January | December 5, 2007 |
| Spring 2008: April | March 5, 2008 |
| Summer 2008: July | June 4, 2008 |
| Fall 2008: October | September 3, 2008 |

How do I submit an article?

Articles or ideas may be submitted to any member of the Communications Commission, delivered to the rectory, or submitted via email at roundstals@yahoo.com.

Is there a certain format?

The newsletter articles should be 300 words or less. Due to space considerations with the newsletter, the editor may edit the submitted articles for content. If the submitted article is unable to be included in the upcoming newsletter, it will be considered for the subsequent issue. If pictures are submitted for publication, please include names of individuals pictured and a brief description regarding the activity.

Parish Activities Calendar

It is a monthly activity calendar that is included in the bulletin on the last weekend of the month detailing parish activities for the upcoming month. It is a great medium to publish the important dates for parish organizations.

How do I provide updates to the calendar?

A member of the Communication Commission will contact the head of each parish organization on a monthly basis to request information or activities to be listed on the upcoming calendar.
